

Ongoing

Support for survivors

Army Community Service's Survivor Outreach Services demonstrates the Army's commitment to families of the fallen. The mission of SOS is to provide enhanced services to these families.

SOS is a holistic and multi-agency approach to delivering services to survivors by providing services at the garrisons and communities closest to where families live. SOS will allow the Army to better identify the needs of others touched by the loss of a Soldier.

To speak with someone at SOS or for information call 384-0272.

As the band marches on

Members of the 9th Army Band march in the Colony Days Parade Saturday in Palmer. Sponsored by the Greater Palmer Chamber of Commerce, this year's Colony Days was themed "The Grotto Lunker Returns." The theme was based on the legend of a dragon-like creature that was said to have once lived among the caves of the Matanuska Valley.

family housing privatization.

This is the first stage of what will become a massive renovation/replacement project through a private partner.

JULY 8 THROUGH 12 Visit Excali-Bear

This year's theme for the Chugiak/Eagle River Chamber of Commerce's Bear Paw Festival is "Excali-Bear and The Knights of the Paw."

The festival features events such as the Teddy Bear Picnic, classic car show, Miss Bear Paw and Escort Pageant, duct-tape bear sculpture, Slippery Salmon Olympics, Jammin' Salmon Cook-off, bicycle safety rodeo, dog and owner look-a-like contest, Running with the Bears (a 300-yard fun run), Bear Paw Photo Contest and the grand parade.

The parade is one of the largest in the state. Visit the Bear Paw Festival Web site at www.bearpawfestival.org for more information and for detailed descriptions of each event.
