Flintstone shuffle

Colton Lamoureux, 2, son of Fort Wainwright Department of Emergency Services game warden Stephen Lamoureux, doesn't need pedals – his feet work fine to move his bike along the DES bike rodeo Saturday. DES Soldiers and employees checked participants' helmets for fit and safety compliance before the young cyclists ventured onto the pavement to negotiate the serpentine, coned course.

Ongoing

Road closures

Southgate Road is closed for four to five weeks while contractors work on the waterline. The closure will extend the entire length of Southgate Road.

Santiago Road will be closed from Ile De France Avenue to Southgate Road. Motorists should plan for detours. Signs will be posted.

EEO recruitment

The Fort Wainwright Equal Employment Opportunity office is recruiting collateral duty personnel for developmental assignments as special emphasis program managers. The positions currently open are Asian/Pacific Islander EPM, American Indian/Alaskan Native EPM, Black EPM, Hispanic EPM and Federal Women's EPM.

Individuals selected will be provided with training and developmental opportunities and must be able to serve for at least two years. Selectees will allocate up to ten percent of their official duty time to serve in their collateral duty assignment. The deadline for applications has been extended from June 15 to 30.

For more information, call EEO at 353-9063.

Housing surveys due

Housing residents who turn in Department of the Army surveys before June 30 will be eligible to win a Nintendo Wii game console and other prizes. Four winners will be drawn. One entry per household is authorized.

The purpose of this survey is to let residents express how well on-post housing needs are being met. The information provided will help guide North Haven Communities in providing future improvements to housing facilities and services. Answers are strictly confidential and residents are urged to offer honest responses.

If residents have misplaced the survey, replacements may be attained from their community center.

Any resident with questions about the survey should contact their NHC community center at 356-1884.

This Week

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY Rev your engines

Job seekers are welcome to meet with representatives from the Cold Regions Test Center and the Alaska State Troopers from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Army Career and Alumni Program Center, Building 3401 Santiago Ave., Room 246. The monthly employer visits are open to all Soldiers, family members and the post community.

Participants may bring their resumes. For more information, call 353-2113.

Upcoming

JUNE 27

A second June postwide yard sale will be from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Post residents will sell from their homes in the housing areas, or from booths at the Lemon Lot at Neely and Meridian Road, across from the post office. Retired military, Fort Wainwright civilian employees and military family members who live off post may secure spaces at the Lemon Lot. Tables are not provided.

A sign will indicate a special lane for yard sale visitors.

For more information, call 353-6612.
